REBUILDING JUSTICE AWARD DINNER

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

APRIL 8, 2027 | COLORADO HISTORY MUSEUM | DENVER, CO

The 2027 Rebuilding Justice Award Dinner will be filled with dynamic conversations, new connections, and unmatched opportunities to engage with the people driving innovation across the legal system. As a sponsor, you will help shape the next era of legal reform alongside national leaders.

Each year, IAALS recognizes individuals and groups who exemplify the spirit of innovation and leadership that we champion as we work toward building a legal system that is accessible, fair, reliable, and accountable. In 2027, IAALS is proud to honor Chief Judge Anna Blackburne-Rigsby and Judge Maritza Dominguez Braswell, two judicial leaders from the state and federal systems who are reimagining how our courts work and how justice is delivered.

2027 REBUILDING JUSTICE AWARDEES

Chief Judge Anna Blackburne-Rigsby, District of Columbia Court of Appeals, was appointed Chief Judge of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals in March 2017. Chief Judge Blackburne-Rigsby chairs the Joint Committee on Judicial Administration for the District of Columbia court system. Under her leadership of the Joint Committee on Judicial Administration, the D.C. Courts have been at the forefront of innovations to improve the administration of justice.

U.S. Magistrate Judge Maritza Dominguez Braswell, District of Colorado, is a national voice on artificial intelligence in courts. She co-chairs the District of Colorado's AI Committee and co-launched the Judicial AI Consortium and is a judicial advisor to The Sedona Conference's Working Group 13 on AI. In 2019, the Colorado Attorney General appointed her Deputy for Civil Litigation and Employment. She was also the office's first Deputy for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

We will also present the 2027 Alli Gerkman Legal Visionary Award at the dinner. This award recognizes innovators, risk takers, visionaries, and emerging leaders who bring new perspectives and a reform-minded approach to improving the legal system.
