

For many years, California has had cutting edge court forms to make unbundling easier to implement and to protect the courts, lawyers, and the public. Effective September 1, 2017, the California Judicial Council revised the forms, of particular importance are the forms regarding Termination of Limited Scope Representation, Notice of Completion of Limited Scope Representation and Objection to Notice of Completion of Limited Scope Representation. For the full report including the forms and court rules, see <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/SPR16-18.pdf> and for a full overview of comments to the report to the California Judicial Council, see <https://jcc.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=5107922&GUID=D470C9CC-1B64-4149-993E-D3BE2A2F5F20>
